

The Deondo Company Partners with Blue Streak

Cape Canaveral, Florida, 9 August 2018 - The Deondo Company, a leading provider of mobile meeting space to the event industry and the exclusive North American supplier of Nook Event Pods, has announced it has signed an agreement with Blue Streak Logistics, LLC in Las Vegas, Nevada for provision of warehouse and delivery services.

“Blue Streak is a fast-growing company in the supply chain logistics industry,” said David Liddle, CEO and President, The Deondo Company. “Harold Boyett and his team gives Deondo a strong partner presence to service Deondo customers in the top location for the event and exhibition industry. “The ability to have our inventory literally minutes from the top convention center in the USA gives Deondo a reliable local partner that benefits customers of Las Vegas conventions.”

The Deondo Company now has inventory locations in Orlando and Chicago, in addition to Las Vegas to fulfill customer orders which places Nook Event Pods close to the last mile for quick, efficient and cost-effective access to state-of-the-art, industry cutting edge mobile meeting space.

“We are excited to be working with The Deondo Company,” stated Boyett, President and Chief Executive Office, Blue Streak Logistics. “The Nook Event Pods are a unique product and as we expand our own warehouse and delivery service throughout the United States we are happy to play a role in the growth of Deondo.”

About The Deondo Company – Headquartered in Cape Canaveral, Florida, The Deondo Company is the exclusive North American supplier of Nook Event Pods to the Event and Exhibition Industry. Nook Event Pods are modular mobile meeting spaces designed for semi-private meetings, food and beverage courts and other uses such as training modules or meet the expert areas. Renting Nook Event Pods are a cost-effective solution to filling empty spaces on the trade show floor or to add comfort for attendees throughout the exhibit hall.

About Blue Streak Couriers - Founded in 1984, Blue Streak offers a multitude of transportation and logistics solutions, including same-day and overnight delivery, routed and scheduled services, warehousing and distribution, temperature-controlled shipments and short- and long-haul freight shipping services. Blue Streak also provides full service supply chain analysis and logistics management. The company serves a large portion of the United States, including the entire Southeast as well as Las Vegas. Blue Streak headquarters are located in Jacksonville, Florida.